Switched On Productions is the video production arm of Switched On Media Partners. We specialise in producing quality video for use on all platforms from standard broadcast for television to new media for use on the internet and on mobiles.

From the concept to final output we offer support, practiced advice and visionary solutions in all aspects of video production.

Working with the brightest in the field, our cameramen and producers are all armed with talent and experience. In addition we possess a post production team second to none. A team that will transform what they have captured into a flawless piece, an art in its own right.

From broadcast standard productions to online and mobile, it is not possible to trade quality for anything else.

It is in fact, the quality of our work that we trade on.
